

A VETERAN DIES IN CAMP WHILE SPENDING SUMMER DAYS ALONG MARSH CREEK.

Tuberculosis and Heart Disease Claim Their Victims in County.

Solomon A. Tate, better known to every one in this place as Jim Tate died on last Saturday morning in a camp at Black Hole, along Marsh Creek, aged 59 years and 9 months. He had been in failing health for several years, having a tuberculosis abscess of the lungs and at times life seemed to be hanging in the balance. During a convalescent period about two weeks ago he proposed that the annual family camp at Marsh Creek should be made. At his urging all preparations were made, the camp being composed of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Tate and two children, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Blair and children and Wm. McG. Tawney and wife.

For several days Mr. Tate's condition seemed to be most promising and he was enjoying his camp life. Then he was attacked with one of his sinking spells, which lasted until Saturday morning when he passed away. The body was removed on Saturday afternoon to his home on East Middle St.

Jim Tate was among the youngest soldiers enlisting in the Civil War from Adams county, being but sixteen years old at time of being mustered in. He was a member of Co. E, 138th Regt., Pa. Vols. and was mustered in May 18, 1864, for three years. He joined his company and regiment in the trenches at Cold Harbor June 7, 1864 and was honorably discharged at end of the war. The first battle in which he was engaged was Cold Harbor, then Monocacy, Opequan, Fisher's Hill, Cedar Creek, Petersburg and Sailor's Creek. He was in the skirmishes at Bermuda Hundred, Snicker's Gap and New Market. He was never wounded but spent a short time in the hospital at Washington, D. C., at close of war. He was at the surrender at Appomattox and took part in the march to Danville when 110 miles was covered in 4 days and 4 hours. For many years he was engaged in handling freight of Reading railroad.

He was twice married, first to a daughter of the late Michael Ream, who died about 20 years ago. He afterwards married Miss Annie Tawney, who survives. He leaves three sons and two daughters by first marriage, Robert Tate of Hagerstown, James Tate, Michael Tate, Mrs. John Steinour of this place and Mrs. Miner of Mt. Union. TOWN FATHERS' MEETING

THE AMENDED GUTTER ORDINANCE ADOPTED.

A Number of Citizens Ordered to be Given Notice to Make and Repair Pavements.

Council met in their regular monthly meeting on last Tuesday evening, President Gilbert in the chair and Councilmen Wierman, Hammond, Hamilton, Beck, Tawney and Wisotzkey present.

Edw. Wolf appeared before Council in reference to the ordinance pertaining to the keeping of gasoline and other inflammables in the borough. The inquiry was made concerning the Spalding garage on York street. The matter was referred to the Fire Marshal. C. J. Spalding being present during the meeting, when the matter was brought up said they were compelled to keep more than one barrel on hand, especially on Sunday, for on that day they sometimes consumed three barrels of gasoline.

Mr. Spalding came into Council to ask them to remove the fire plug close to entrance of his garage. There was danger of automobiles running against it and somebody would pay some damages. The decision was reached by Council that the plug be put near the corner of street and that Mr. Spalding should make a new pavement. Mr. Spalding said he would not violate any order of Council and would be governed by Fire Marshal's investigation.

A communication was read from the Goodwill Steam Engine Co. No. 5 of York stating the safe arrival of the engine at its headquarters and expressed themselves as very glad to render any service our people may need here. The secretary was instructed to reply to the communication and Council tendered a vote of thanks for their courtesy and promptness in the action taken by their company while our engine was being repaired. An order was granted for $9.00 for loading, unloading and in transit of the Goodwill's engine from and back to York.

Councilman Hammond called up his amendment to the ordinance regulating the guttering, paving and grading of certain streets and it appearing that proper advertising of proposed amendment had been made it was passed.

President Gilbert asked for a crossing on Springs avenue and Howard street and that the one at Dr. T. C. Billheimer's be repaired. The Highway Committee was instructed to make crossing. The President suggested that the crossing be made of cement.

Councilman Wierman moved that the attorney bring suit and collect license for this year from Transit Co.

SAD OCEAN DROWNING.

Miss Elizabeth McPherson, daughter of Judge John B. McPherson, of Philadelphia, a brother of Miss Sarah McPherson, of this place, and a nephew of the late Hon. Edward McPherson, and C. B. Judson, of Troy, lost their lives in the Atlantic last Friday afternoon at Point Pleasant, New Jersey.

Judge and Mrs. McPherson are occupying a cottage at Point Pleasant this summer. With them as guests were Mr. Judson and Mrs. William S. Bergner, of Philadelphia, an older daughter.

Mr. Judson and Miss McPherson, who was 21 years old, went bathing Friday afternoon. No other person besides a little girl, the only person who saw the drowning, was on the beach. The point at which they entered the surf is known as one of the most dangerous places on the Jersey coast, owing to the variable beach conditions caused by the flow from a nearby inlet.

The child who spread the alarm said that the two had been in the water about half an hour when they suddenly disappeared. The girl gave the alarm and both bodies were quickly recovered.

Mrs. McPherson has been very ill at Point Pleasant with an affection of the heart. The effect of her daughter's death, it is feared, may prove serious.

Judge McPherson was additional law judge of Dauphin county prior to his elevation to United States Court in the Philadelphia district. Miss McPherson has frequently visited relatives here, making many friends who were greatly shocked over her tragic fate.

The funeral took place on Monday with interment at Lancaster, Pa.

Justice Hill in default of $1,000 bail each re-committed them to jail at close of hearing.

HORSE OF ANOTHER SOLD

A LITTLESTOWN MERCHANT LOSES HORSE BOUGHT AND $200

Bert Sheaffer Gone With Proceeds of Sale of Horse—Other Losers in Gettysburg.

J. B. Sheaffer, better known as Bert Sheaffer came to this place last February from Carlisle and went to work for D. H. Kelly at the Buttonwood Stock farm. Before coming here he had worked for Wm. R. Kline, proprietor of Hotel Cumberland, Carlisle.

Mr. Kline sent a valuable horse to the farm recently to be trained. The horse was valued at $350. Week before last Bert Sheaffer told Mr. Kelly and others that he had been instructed by Mr. Kline to sell it. Clinton Mehring hardware merchant of Littlestown saw the horse and closed bargain with Sheaffer at $200 giving him his check.

Early part of last week Mr. Kelly had an inquiry by letter from Mr. Kline asking about his horse. He immediately caught him by phone and told him of the sale. Sheaffer had made and learned that latter had no instructions to sell horse.

A writ of replevin was at once issued for the horse and Sheriff Colestock secured horse of Mr. Mehring and later in week it was turned over to the owner.

It would seem that Sheaffer had made his plan to get out of this section of the country. The $200 check was cashed and he told parties he was going to the west. It is said that he borrowed of two Gettysburg parties $10 each and to a store he gave a check for $10 and got $4 change in cash and that the check has come back unhonored. He had notified Mr. Kelly that he was quitting about Aug. and Aug. 3rd he left town.

The whereabouts of Sheaffer are unknown. Sheaffer is an accomplished horse thief, it is said. He is an outlawed driver of the International Drivers' association and has a record for crookedness, though his ability as a trainer is recognized.

One of the stories told of him is that when in Canada he made the owner of a horse, valued at $5000, believe that it was dead, Sheaffer having chloroformed it. Later, after the owner had gone away he revived it and made way with it.

The only person in the whole deal who seems to be out is Mr. Mehring of Littlestown, who has neither the horse nor the two hundred.

SORRENTO ON BAY OF NAPLES

LAST LETTER FROM EUROPE FROM MARY KATHERINE.

Disappointed in Not Seeing the Eternal City but Sees the Much Talked of Tarantella.

The last letter from Mary Katherine on her recent trip to Europe was from Sorrento on the Bay of Naples shortly before sailing for home.

I wonder if you get all the postals. I send you one nearly every other day sometimes two at once. I sent two from Pompeii and another from Naples a day or two after.

The Carthusian monastery and church of San Martino on a high hill inside the fortifications of Castle Saint Elmo, now a military prison. The walls are enormous, many places cut in the solid rock. Even walking through the gates and along the wall to the church gives one the shivers if they think what it would mean to have these great iron doors swing shut behind.

We enter the cloisters first, cross to the left and enter the church consisting of a nave with three chapels on either side. The high altar is a beautiful piece of workmanship in inlaid marble, lapis lazuli and other precious stones. The walls and ceilings are entirely covered with frescoes. In the ceiling in the nave is an Ascension and between the windows the twelve Apostles. Over the main entrance is a Descent from the Cross, to one side Moses and Elias. Over the arches to the chapel are the Prophets. In the choir is a Crucifixion. The choir stalls are beautifully carved wood—16th century. The Nativty by Guido Reni is unfinished owing to his death. The Last Supper, Christ washing the Disciples' feet and others. In the treasury is another Descent from the Cross, a masterpiece. On the ceiling Judith is said to have been painted in 48 hours by Giordano at 72 years of age. The floors are all inlaid or marble mosaic. The carved wood work is beautiful, apostle, monks, Christ leads, etc.

The inlaid wood is wonderful. The custodian told me all the carving and inlaying was done by the monks. I can't recall all there is in that church. The monastery is now a museum. Two cells are left as when occupied by monks. A narrow bed, two blankets, one pillow, a stove, a little stand, prayer books, candle, rosary, crucifix and last but not least the skull. The Carthusians always had a skull around and had to dig a little of their graves each day. The marble ceiling around the cloisters is plentifully decorated with all kinds of skulls.

Many of the cells have been knocked into large rooms. There is the usual collection of pottery, painting, lace, jewels, the largest piece of topaz known, partly cut, a Christ head in relief, monk died before completing it. The coach occupied by Victor Emmanuel and Garibaldi on entering the city in 1860. The state barge of Charles III, portraits of all the Abbots, portraits of other men well known in Neapolitan history, of Garibaldi and many other things belonging to him. Uniforms, ivory shell work, memorials of the reigns of different kings, some king's silver bedstead. I can't begin to remember all.

There is a wonderful work in wood carving which fills a small room. The Madonna and child at the foot of a ruined temple, with the three wise men, around is mountain scenery with many people in native costumes. The costumes are painted in different colors. I believe that was never finished either.

At one corner is a room called the Belvedere with two balconies. The views from there are grand. You are high above the city and all seems so peaceful and quiet. Lean out over the railing and hold your hands behind your ears and the noise from the city below come up in a steady roar. It gives an uncanny feeling.

I was to have had a few days in Rome. It most breaks my heart not to see the Eternal City but I do not feel very well. The fact is I am dead tired and it would be a rush from start to finish if I went and I know I can't stand the pace any longer.

I saw the Tarantella. It is very effective. The men in gay velvet knee pants, white stockings, black pumps, gay striped sashes, white shirts and bright colored jackets. The girls in bright colored short dresses, low neck, short sleeves, rows of bright beads around their necks, lace aprons, sashes, white stockings and black pumps. They were all very picturesque as they danced the different figures but all together I am glad I saw the much talked of Tarantella.

I saw an article in the stand on Sorrento giving a picture of the street up which Dioctetian used to drive his chariot when he came by water. I knew the street at once, very narrow and steep, about the only street that runs down to the water. To get up here we walked along a narrow shelf built into the water, then through a tunnel to an elevator and so up to the light of day, a couple of hundred feet above the water. One does not get the beautiful views from the hotel as from the water.

With love,
MARY KATHERINE.

Millions We Burn or Gamble.

In all this huge country of ours we build about $500,000,000 worth of new buildings a year: our fire losses, including cost of fire departments and insurance, exceeds that sum. Two hundred millions of dollars are actually burned up, gone into smoke; fire departments, high water pressure and all that sort of thing mean nearly $300,000,000 more; we annually pay out $185,000,000 to the gentlemen who condescend to gamble with us on the question of fire in insurance premiums.

The sum of these amounts, writes W. F. Fitzpatrick, in the Metropolitan Magazine, is our fire cost, and we get back, after considerable trouble and some litigation, about $95,000,000 from the insurance companies as a slight salvage for our fire injuries!

Substitutes.

"We haven't any deviled crabs, sir," said the waiter. "I can offer you some very nice deviled eggs."

"Umph! I presume if you were out of mock turtle soup you'd suggest some very nice mock oranges!" retorted the diner.

"Yes, sir," answered the waiter, calmly. "At least I would suggest that you give them a mock trial."—Hager's Weekly.

Paint Secrets

A paint manufacturer always prefers to keep secret the fact that he has substituted something else for white lead in his paint, but when the substitution is discovered he defends the adulteration as an improvement. There is no mystery about good paint. Send for our handsome booklet. It will tell you why

GLORIA AMERICANA!

Darky in Hawaii Who Trusted in the Old Flag.

"I remember," said the globe trotter in the hotel corridor, "an odd instance of gloria Americana, if I may be so up-to-date in treating of our flag and its history. A party of us were traveling in the mountains of Haiti. A revolution had started that morning. All at once one of our party drew rein with an ejaculation and pointed to a lone ridge where you would suppose nothing but an eagle would make its habitation. And there, sure enough, was the banner of that noble soul—an old tattered stars and stripes fluttering on a bamboo pole. We felt that we ought to pay our respects and at the same time learn who put Old Glory in that wild place. After 15 minutes' search we found a path that zigzagged up the ridge, and discovered an old negro sitting before a wretched hut smoking his pipe while he kept his eye on the flag.

"What's the flag for?" I asked.

"Perfection!" said he. 'heah dey hab begin anudder resolution, so I put it up. I come heah 22 year ago an' hab dat wit' me. Yes, sah, I'm Georgy as cook on a steamer out of Savannah. Like de place? Oh, yas. Plant yam an' coffee an' cassava. Resolutions don' trouble dis nigger. Ebery time deh resolute up goea dat deh flag an' dat's all der is to it."

BIG EUROPEAN BANQUETS.

Aberdeen Dinner With 2,400 Guests—Feast for French Mayors.

The 1900 club banquet to the colonial ministers at the Albert hall, with its 1,600 guests, is certainly of imposing scale, but it is scarcely, as stated by a contemporary, the "second largest dinner on record," the premier place being awarded to Lord Strathcona's Aberdeen dinner, at which the guests numbered 2,400 says the Westminster Gazette.

Some years ago the Lady Burdett-Coutts feasted 2,000 people at her house at Highgate. King Edward later among her guests. A little later his royal highness (as he then was) was one of 3,000 guests who sat down to a dinner in London; 2,500 were present at the banquet in honor of the Right Honorable A. J. Balfour in Waverly market, Edinburgh, some time ago.

But even such gargantuan feasts cannot compare with the banquet in 1889 at the Palais de l'Industrie, Paris, which was enjoyed by 13,000 mayors of French towns, in addition to 2,000 other diners; nor with the feast Sir Watkin W. Wynn once gave in Wynnstay Park to 15,000 neighbors, a banquet at which 96 hogsheds and 1,440 bottles of als were consumed.

The Money End.

"Maurice Grau told me," said a composer, "that he owed his success to the fact that he produced opera solely from the business, never from the musical or artistic standpoint.

"Frank, wasn't it? Most men in his line use his method, but hypocritically pretend to be artists.

"Poor Grau in our discussion said that he went at music as a certain perfumer went at perfumes—not with the primary idea of producing something excellent, but with the primary idea of producing something novel, bizarre, profitable.

"This perfumer, he explained, said one day gayly to a friend:

"Hurrah! I'm doing a pushing business. I'll be rich in a year. I've invented a new perfume that smells just like gasoline."

"But—," said his friend, "but—I don't—er—quite see the point."

"The stuff is selling like hot cakes," said the perfumer. "Men and women alike are buying it. You see, it tickles their vanity. They go about redolent of gasoline and people think that they own automobiles."

Just the Reverse.

The owner of the ranch in one of the arid regions of the great west was entertaining an eastern relative. He showed him over his broad acres, spoke of the difficulties that had been overcome in making the desert blossom as the rose, and outlined his plans for the future.

"But is it possible," asked the visitor, "to make more than a bare living on such land and in such a climate as this?"

"It is. I have made considerably more than a bare living on this land."

"I am glad to hear it, Cyrus. Then you have something laid up for a rainy day, have you?"

"Not exactly," rejoined the host, with a laugh. "On the contrary, with the help of an occasional rainy day, I have managed to lay something by for the dry days."—Cleveland Leader.

The Almighty Dollar.

A recent headline, "Rule of the Dollar," has suggested the inquiry, "Who originated the familiar phrase, 'the almighty dollar'?" It was Washington Irving, in "The Creole Village," which he published in 1837. The phrase became so popular and excited so much controversy in consequence of a doubt whether the adjective were irreverent, that its author had to explain 18 years later that he intended "no irreverence, even to the dollar, which he is well aware is becoming daily more and more an object of worship." "Dollar is certainly one of the world's greatest words now, and it is difficult to realize that it only means 'talleyer,' the 'thaler' having been named after the Joachimsthal, in Bohemia, in whose valley it was first coined in the sixteenth century.—London Chronicle.

ACHED IN EVERY BONE.

Chicago Society Woman Who Was Sick She Could Not Sleep or Eat, Cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

When a woman's kidneys go wrong, her back gives out and every little task becomes a burden. She is tired, nervous, sleepless, run down—suffers daily from backache, headache, dizzy spells, and bearing-down pains.

Don't worry over imagined "female troubles." Cure the kidneys and you will be well. Read how to find the cure.

Marion Knight, of 38 N. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill., member of the Chicago Federation of Musicians and a well-known club woman, says: "This winter when I started to use Doan's Kidney Pills I ached in every bone and had intense pains in the kidneys and pelvic organs. The urine was thick and cloudy, and I could barely eat enough to live. I felt a change for the better within a week. The second week I began eating heartily. I began to improve generally, and before seven weeks had passed I was well. I had spent hundreds of dollars for medicine that did not help me, but $6 worth of Doan's Kidney Pills restored me to perfect health."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Miss Knight will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

Catalpa Speciosa Tree.

This will be the future timber of this country. The railroads have invested millions of dollars in this timber for cross ties and telegraph poles for the future. This timber is the native forest tree of the lower Wabash Valley. In 6 years this timber will grow large enough for posts and rails, which will last, exposed to all kinds of weather, from 85 to 90 years. Split shingles on houses in its native country last over 100 years. These trees while growing, are clad in myriad robes of beautiful foliage of flowers. Every new home in the county should have a few of these trees in the yard as they are fast growers. We will have a few thousand of these valuable trees which can be transplanted from our gardens in September and October, 1907. We secured a few seeds at a big expense last winter. We will sell the trees at $3 per 100, less than a 100, 5 cts. each. We will have at the same time 80,000 fine large Ginseng Plants which we will sell at 50 cents per 100. The above in city nurseries are quoted at $10 per 100. Every person should assist in introducing this long lasting timber in this country. Call at our gardens, or address

Nursing Mothers and

Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting a healthy and plentiful flow of milk. Expectant mothers, too, will find it a priceless help to prepare the system for baby's coming, and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, growing or distressing sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retroversion or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famous specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula, knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain group of nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular stomach remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative, alone brought the cure to the stomach nerves, alone brought the cure to the stomach nerves, alone brought the cure to the stomach nerves.

For stomach distress, bloating, hiccoughs, bad breath and all other complaints, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Takes it or Liquid—and see for yourself what it will do. We sell it and clearly testify to it.

HENRY JAMES ON GUM-CHEWING.

A Quid Needed to Help Lubricate Through the Long Sentences.

When I became aware indeed it was to see them all disfigured by their use of their weapon; aware, I mean, that each member of the group, while he or she talked or listened, was primarily occupied after the manner of a ruminant animal. They were discussing Wagner in short under the inspiration of chew-gum, and though "Parsifal" might be their secondary care the independent action of their paws was the first.

Slow, resolute, inexorable, eternal, it had yet managed for a little, amid their talk, to beguile suspicion; but once detected it spoiled for me. I confess, not only the quality of that exhibition but the very fact of it, which had been dearer to me still; since, obviously, I could now, indifferent to this value, do nothing but ask myself if a sense for manners were the more likely to be rooted in a gentleman rolling his bolus about while he talked to a lady, or in a lady who rolled hers about while he was so engaged. Where, definitely, were the civilities, as one expects women to embody them, when such practices and such paterfances as those were part of the training for them? What address, what response, what pleasantness or propriety in general, might be held to consort, for a woman of whatever age, with her having not to "mind" that her interlocutor of whatever condition, should chew in her face for sweet freedom or with his having not to mind that she should chew in his?—Henry James, in Harper's Bazar.

THE JOLLY JESTERS.

They Have a Bout with the Watermelon.

"Mr. Middleman, ah desires to propound a question."

"Very well, Mr. Tambo."

"Why do dey designate dat beautiful southern vegetable as ah watermelon?"

"That's easy. Because it makes your mouth water."

"Nowhar near de answer. It's called ah watermelon because yo' cut it in de spring."

"Speakin' ob de spring reminds me," broke in the other end-man. "Ma ole daddy went out to git some water one day an' he done fell in ah spring."

"Was he drowned?"

"He wasn't zactly drowned, but it done killed him."

"That's strange. He' fell in the spring and was killed?"

"Yessah."

"But he wasn't drowned?"

"No, sah."

"Well, did he die in the spring?"

"No, sah; he died in de fall."

"Our golden voiced tenor, Mr. Vio. Lett will contribute that heart-touching ballad entitled, 'Warden, Brush Those Locks Away; I Yearn for Liberty.'"—Harper's Weekly.

Vandal at Shelley's Grave.

A correspondent who visited the Protestant cemetery at Rome the other day reports an act of silly vandalism at Shelley's grave. "As we wandered about," says the correspondent, "we saw for about half an hour a young man tourist sitting on Shelley's grave, carefully occupied in cutting the marble with a sharp instrument."

"We thought he was restoring the lettering, but, coming to his side, we found that he had cut his own name (which I will not give), 'New Zealand, April, 1907. I love thee,' close to the inscription on the flat white marble surface. He had then soaked with ink his own work, leaving the disgraceful fruits of his vandalism for all who visit this interesting place."

How any professing admirer of Shelley could be guilty of such conduct passes belief.

Easy Mathematics.

"Yes," said the man in the Rookery the other day, "he looks to me like a shiftless sort of a proposition."

"He is," answered the salesman. "Why, he's had four different jobs during this last year."

"Is that so?" queried the other. "How'd you find out that he'd have four of them?"

"Oh, he's let it out in little things he's said at different times," answered the salesman, "and I found it out by just putting two and two together."

"Oh, I see," smiled his friend. "Well, that's easy, two and two does make four, sure enough."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Women's Chance in Literature.

The world is waiting for the woman author, who need not be great, but only natural and downright, to reveal to it (as a male world) the true inwardness of a woman's nature, her feelings toward other women, what attracts her in men, and who repels, how she really feels when she is kissed by a man, and how she feels when she is not kissed, and a thousand other things which a man author can only guess at and in no case can expound. Here, surely, is a chance for a woman writer.—Academy

A MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION

LET THE MERCHANTS ORGANIZE FOR THEIR OWN WELFARE.

And Give Tourage Industry the Cold Shoulder Until the Hotel Men Make Good.

According to appearances Gettysburg is not going to have a business man's league because the hotelmen are not going to make good. They have given no indications as yet of going ahead to put up fifty per cent of a fund that was proposed to be used for exploiting the excursion business and other matters which would concern the welfare of the town. They have evidently concluded that they can live somehow, if every season in this place should be as dull as the present one. Or perhaps they are afraid of each other, that one will get more than his share of travelers. Or perhaps they think that if they do nothing the other business men will go ahead without their help and they may have a chance to reap where they have not sown.

A business man's league is no experiment. It has been tried in many places with remarkable success. If they have ever failed it was because active enterprising men were not back of the movement. What has been accomplished often reads like fiction, but when data and figures are given one knows that their work has resulted in the accomplishment of real facts.

If Gettysburg's hotel men are not enterprising, if they have no push and get up in them to take up a work that would place their business upon a more substantial basis than it has ever been, then the question is up to the other business interests of the town, what are you going to do for the business welfare of the community, outside of the development of tourage business.

The answer should be a merchants association, that would devote no time or attention to the tourage business, but would deal altogether with everything else that would concern the welfare of the business enterprises of this place. If the hotel men will not pay to have their end of the business developed let that part go and devote every energy along many other lines that could not help but wake up the business of Gettysburg.

A merchants association would have many questions to consider. We heard one discussed very recently and that was the early closing of the stores of this place. There is no question that the early closing must be enjoyed by both proprietors and their employees. It was argued however that there are many men who are at work during the day and after they have had their supper and come up street that they find many of the stores closed. It was also said that many farmers do not come to town that would surely come in after their work of the day to attend to matters of business and who patronize in the summer evenings the country stores surrounding this place. It was said that there were twenty two of these country stores and what was the loss to the town store was the gain of the country store.

But the improvement in the condition of affairs would come in the campaign year in and year out for business and in everything that would help toward that end. What it would be possible for a merchants association to accomplish, is well illustrated in the following extracts from an article in that excellent monthly, The Village, for August, of what was actually done in a town having a population of 2000. Perhaps when the hotel men would see such an organization at work, and the matter of tourage receiving no attention, that they would come forward with the price to have that industry developed.

The natural tendency of the times is away from the village. This is especially so with regard to retail trade in this day of widespread advertising and of big mail order houses.

Still, in order that the village shall be the desirable place to live which we would have it, there must continue to be shopping facilities at least as good as the present ones, and preferably better.

It is plain then that it is to the advantage of the villagers and the would-be villagers that the village stores improve rather than deteriorate. It needs no statement to the effect that it is also to the advantage of the storekeepers.

It would seem under such circumstances that the merchants of the village would have the inhabitants with them whole-souled in the effort to keep at home all the business possible. Notwithstanding the logic of this, such is the selfishness and the thoughtlessness of humanity that in our smallest villages, and those wherein shopkeeper and shopkeeper are most interdependent, there is a steadily increasing tendency to send to the city for things instead of trying to buy them at the stores near home.

It is probably true that the villagers are constantly being educated to desire a better or a later style or grade of goods than the home merchants keep, and this can be rounded by a large extent if the buyer is willing to co-operate with the seller.

The village shopper who will always try to buy at home before sending away, who will first give the local merchant a chance to do the sending and to reap the possible profit, will soon find that that local merchant is trying to keep a better assortment, trying to keep a stock that will not necessitate so much special ordering and so many times saying "just out" or "we never keep that." If the merchant does not take advantage of his chances to enlarge his business by holding the mail order trade at home, he has none but himself to blame.

As for the price competition of the mail order houses which are such a bugbear to the village merchant, if that merchant will take those catalogs and study them carefully, he will find that in the cases of most items he can, quality for quality, match Mr. Mail Order Man and in a good many instances go him one better.

The mail order house has to make money. It is paying every year big dividends upon its stock. It cannot prepay freight and express charges. These have to come out of the buyers' pockets. The argument that the mail order house buys in such large quantities that it can sell everything very cheap—as cheap as most dealers can buy—is a fallacy because such a house, to make the quantity purchase of all the thousands of items upon its list, would need all the store room in the city to accommodate its stock.

Another point that the village merchant should note is that as far as possible the mail order houses carry their own brands of package goods, brands which have no exact duplicate in the dealers' stocks. This means that the dealer is left free to offer "just as good" goods at any price he wishes. The consumer has only the mail order house's word for the quality of its own brand, and his own dealer's word is better than that.

A plan which the writer saw carried out in a Catskill village in connection with a general effort to boom business was that of a general bargain week. This was used in order to awaken in the people both in the village and in its vicinity an interest in the local shops.

The scheme was to get each merchant to offer for the week to sell some one line of goods, or more if desired, at a very low price, cost or less if possible. This necessitated each dealer making very little sacrifice and yet in the aggregate made up a very attractive showing for the prospective shopper.

Some of the detailed results of the sale were that the largest dry goods store had the biggest week's business in its history. Several other stores made the same report. It was found that the stores which advertised the most bargains sold the most goods. The dry goods stores and clothing stores received the greatest benefit. The feed stores contributed a good deal to the success of the occasion by cutting heavily into the price of flour, etc. One concern brought in a carload of a new brand of flour for introduction purposes. An opposition concern which did not advertise in the pamphlet cut heavily in flour and also sold a car or more. The local bank reported cash deposits on account for Bargain Week, over $101,000 which is a large amount for a village of 2,000.

Grange Picnic a Success.

The first annual picnic of the Straban Grange on last Saturday proved a great success. W. W. Hill, State Master, of Chambersburg, and Mortimer Whitehead, ex-Lecturer of the National Grange, made speeches that were listened to most attentively by a large crowd of grangers and farmers from all parts of the county.

In addition to the speeches the crowd was entertained with two games of base ball. The one in the morning was between the married men and the single men. George Morrison and Wm. Eckert being the battery for the former and Lloyd Decker and Kirby Heltzel for the latter. The married men won by a score of 7 to 5.

The afternoon game was between Hunterstown and Arendtsville and proved a most remarkable and well played game. The score was 3 to 2 in favor of Arendtsville. Neither side scored in the first four innings. In the fifth inning Hunterstown got its two runs. In the sixth inning a wild throw to the catcher which landed in bushes brought in the three runs for the winners. Plank and Eckert were battery for Hunterstown and Funt and Raffensperger for Arendtsville.

The proceeds of the picnic were $108.

Speed Rule for Autos on Avenues.

The Secretary of War on July 24, 1907, approved an Amended Regulation for the Government of the Gettysburg National Park, which reads:

The rate of speed over the avenues for automobiles shall not exceed six miles per hour. Excess of this speed renders the driver or the person responsible therefor liable to a penalty of not less than five dollars and not more than five hundred dollars.

As mentioned last week this rule was called forth by the many complaints to the Battlefield Commission as to the high rate of speed of users of autos over the avenues, making traveling unsafe for others. The rule will be enforced by a motorcycle policeman.

The six mile rate per hour is the rate recently adopted for the grounds at Soldiers' Home, Erie.

Fruit Growers Meet.

The last regular meeting of the Fruit Growers Association of Adams Co. was held in Fruit Growers' Hall, Bendersville, last Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock with the following program: "Will it be profitable to plant a sour cherry orchard in this vicinity?" was discussed by C. L. Osborne; "Economic handling of apple barrels, both full and empty," by Rufus Lawver; "Current events of interest to fruit growers," by J. H. Peters, John Garretson, Chas. Wolf and W. E. Grove, and a report on market outlook was made by the Corresponding Secretary.

Teachers' Meeting.

The seventh annual summer meeting of Adams county teachers will be held in Bruns Chapel, this place, on Thursday, Aug. 29, 1907, at 9:30 a. m. There will be two sessions. Prominent men in educational work will speak. A contest in spelling will be a feature, winner to be awarded a copy of Webster's International Dictionary. It has been a most important meeting before taking up the work of the school year.

Daburt in Two Auto Accidents.

R. S. Crawford of Hagerstown took part in the auto races at Atlantic City last week, giving his car a record of two miles in an even two minutes. He had two narrow escapes, a head-on collision and the turn to side he gave to his vehicle chipped the front wheels from the other auto. His machine later ran into a tree in the dark, but he escaped both times without injury.

Sues Street Railway for Damages.

Mrs. Sarah L. Corrigan of McSherrystown has sued the Hanover and McSherrystown Street Railway Co. for damages for injuries received. She had boarded a car on Centre Square, Hanover, and by starting of car before she was seated was thrown with force to the ground. The accident happened a year ago and Mrs. Corrigan has been suffering ever since from the effects.

Adams Co. Boy in Alaska.

Edward Sachs, son of John Sachs, of Hunterstown, is making rapid strides in his chosen profession of mining expert. He has been associated with Dr. Fahrig, of Philadelphia, for four years at a good salary. He left recently with Dr. Fahrig and a son on a commission to Alaska for which he will receive $400 for three months work and all expenses of his trip paid. Word has been received of the arrival of the party at Valdez, Alaska. They go to examine the McCarthy copper property, to reach which they must go by a pack train across the country.

This Adams county boy entertains the hope that the day may come when he can devote himself to the development of what is under ground in old Adams, and we join in the hope, both that he may be able to devote himself to the task and will find something worth while.

Pleasant Trip for Veterans.

The survivors of the 15th. Pennsylvania Cavalry are to be the guests of Gen. Palmer their old Colonel, to celebrate at his home, Glen Eyre near Colorado Springs, the thirty-fifth annual reunion, with transportation provided. The train carrying them leaves Broad Street Station at Philadelphia 4:30 P. M. next Saturday, Aug. 17, to leave Colorado on Monday August 26th. The surviving members in this County are John William Wiernan, of Wiernan's Mills, Jacob Kitzmiller, Gettysburg, John McLaughlin, Fairfield, William Small, Edge Grove and J. N. Noel, Kingsdale. It is hoped all of these will take the opportunity thus afforded of a delightful trip, and to enjoy the abounding generosity of their old Commander.

Mad Dog Damages.

The County Commissioners of Adams county adjusted on last Tuesday the claims of H. P. Hartlaub of Mennallen township, and Robert Stultz of Liberty township, for damages done by mad dogs. H. P. Hartlaub recovered the amount of $160.00 for three cows and two heifers, and Robert Stultz received $40 for the loss of one cow.

Meat Inspection Begun.

Dr. Nousek of Reading, one of the newly appointed meat inspectors for this district, on a tour of inspection of butcher shops and slaughter houses, reached Gettysburg on last Wednesday and inspected all the meat shops and slaughter houses in this place. The inspector said a complaint by stating the fact that the slaughter houses of Gettysburg were in a most excellent condition and that the meat was of the best quality.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

NERVOUSNESS.

Nervousness makes people miserable, blue, and unhappy. They think something terrible is going to happen. At night they toss and worry and are not rested. They tire easily and haven't much energy. They think many things are the matter with them—Consumption, Kidney trouble, or twenty other diseases. It's just stomach trouble, nothing else in the world. Two bottles of Cooper's New Discovery will put the stomach in shape in three weeks. I know this because I've seen it tried a thousand times. Then all nervousness will disappear. I know this too, because I've seen it happen a thousand times. Here's a letter I got the other day:

"My system was badly run down and my stomach and nerves in an awful shape. I could not digest my food, was always tired and would often feel faint and dizzy."

"I had heard so much of your New Discovery medicine that I began taking it. Relief and strength and happiness were found in the very first bottle and the benefit I have received from it has been truly wonderful. I am no longer nervous, my appetite and digestion are good and I eat everything and sleep well." Mrs. W. J. Schaurer, 220 Guthrie St., Louisville, Ky.

We sell Cooper's New Discovery. It makes tired, worn out, nervous people happy.

THE CALL OF THE SEA

"The water is fine; come in!"

This is the call of the sea, the generous invitation of Old Neptune to partake of the delights of his realm, and it sounds distinct from each of the points in the greatest chain of seashore resorts in the world—the wave-washed New Jersey coast.

Gay Atlantic City; witching Wildwood; New Cape May in the first flush of its rejuvenation; Sea Isle City, Ocean City, with their smaller sister-resorts nearby; Asbury Park and Long Branch where sylvan shades meet incoming billows—each echo the call to young and old— "Come one; come all!"

These great resorts are within easy access of every section of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, and Delaware by the fine service of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Its many through express trains to Philadelphia from North, South, East, and West land passengers in Philadelphia, whence Atlantic City is but one hour by steam trains from Market Street Wharf; an hour and a half by electric trains, and only eighty minutes from Broad Street Station, via the Delaware River Bridge all-rail route. Cape May and Wildwood are only about a hundred minutes from Market Street Wharf or two hours from Broad Street.

The fine service of express trains maintained by the Pennsylvania Railroad between Philadelphia and Long Branch, Elberon, Allentown, Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, Spring Lake, Sea Girt, and Beach Haven not only serves the convenience of the casual but meets the requirements of the daily traveler.

Excursion tickets, with liberal return limits, may be obtained to any of these popular summering places at reasonably low rates, enabling all who feel the need of a change an opportunity for recreation by the ocean-side.

Full details of rates and time of trains may be obtained of Ticket Agents.

GUARANTEED REMEDY FOR INDIGESTION.
Interesting Statement by The People's Drug Store.

When a man comes into this store and calls for any particular indigestion remedy, we always give him what he asks for, but in case he leaves it to us we usually recommend Pepsikola tablets.

Here is a preparation we have been selling right over the counter for years, and from actual observation we know it must do good, and really does cure indigestion and dyspepsia or there would be a steady stream of people coming back for their money, as every 25 cent box is sold with the understanding that you must be decidedly benefited or there is nothing to pay.

You simply try Pepsikola tablets with the understanding that they will steady your nerves, improve your appetite, relieve wind belching coated tongue, sour stomach, fullness after eating, weakened energy, and other symptoms of indigestion or The People's Drug Store is ready at any time to pay back your money without the least argument.

Ten Years in Bed.

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P. of Oakville, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." For sale by the Peoples Drug Store.

W. L. BUSHEY of McSherrystown has completed one of the finest pigeon coxes to be found in county.

The Limit of Life.

"The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged, carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by Peoples Drug Co. 50c.

GEORGE STONESIFER of McSherrystown has sold his house and lot to Paul Lawrence for $400.

The 77th birthday of Chas. F. Rowe of Emmitsburg was pleasantly celebrated last week.

"We never repeat of eating too little," was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to every one without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by Peoples Drug Store.

Painful Feet.
Pretty feet are always painful feet. Shoes rarely fit ever fit them. Hence they carry their possessors haltingly and too often they must direct themselves toward the chiropodist's. The high, arched instep, the pretty foot's essential quality, is yet in a way a deformity, for it causes an abnormal tightness of the tendons governing the toes, and the toes in consequence all turn under a little as though trying to grasp something. Turning under, the joints stand out prominently, just as the knuckles stand out when the fingers are closed. The leather of the shoe rubs and irritates these prominent joints and the pretty foot's owner pays the penalty in many a smart, in many a jumping pain.

Pittsburg Leads in Pig.
Of the total production of 25,307,191 gross tons of pig iron in the United States in 1905 Pennsylvania made 11,247,869 gross tons, and of this output Pittsburg district (Allegheny, Beaver and Washington counties) contributed 6,230,863 tons. In other words, says the Iron Age, the Pittsburg district last year made nearly 25 per cent of the total production of pig iron in the United States, and 55 per cent of the output in Pennsylvania.

South American Switzerland.
Presidential inaugural festivities have been the rule in South America during the past few months. Brazil has installed a chief executive with due pomp and ceremony, and the two Swisslands of South America—Bolivia and Paraguay—have likewise provided themselves with new administrative heads.

Fame and Fortune.
"That young physician is working hard," "Yes," answered the veteran practitioner. "He is on the track of discovery that will mean fame and fortune. He is trying to invent a new name that will make some old ailment fashionable."—Washington Star.

Best for the Poor.
"Surely," remarked the good man, "it goes without saying that honesty is the best policy." "It is," replied the wise man, "until you get prominent enough to drop policy and start playing the stock market."—Philadelphia Press.

I will mail you free, to prove merit samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Troubles of the stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach Weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me to-day for sample and free Book. SECRET OF COCOS ISLAND.

An English Admiral Who Believed in the Stories of Buried Treasure.

Admiral H. St. L. B. Palliser died suddenly at his country house in Chilchester, England, recently. He served in the Baltic and Black Sea during the Crimean war, and in command of a squadron watched British interests throughout the Carlist war in 1871. He was the commander in chief of the Pacific Squadron from 1876 to 1899.

It was during his command in the Pacific that Admiral Palliser came into possession of what he thought to be the secret of the buried treasures of the famous Cocos island and on board her majesty's ship Imperieuse made the first of a long series of ineffectual efforts to unearth the buried millions. The late Admiral received the "secret" from Captain Hackett
when the latter was on his death-bed and was so impressed by it that despite all failures he remained a firm believer in the existence of the treasure.

The story of the Cocos island treasure is one of the most romantic and fascinating character. One vast hoard of valuables is supposed to have been deposited on the island, which lies 500 miles southwest of Panama, by a British ship which had turned pirate in 1821. The second and more valuable treasure was buried there by the crew of the barkentine Mary Dier about 1835. This hoard was supposed to be the bullion and jewels of the Peruvian town of Callao, which was threatened with revolution and pillage. The national treasure was put on board the British ship for safety, but the crew betrayed their trust and fled with the rich cargo. The value of the two treasures is supposed to be many millions.

At least £6,000 worth of valuables were taken from the island by a man called Keaton. This man died and bequeathed the secret to Hackett. Since the later confided in Admiral Palliser some half dozen fruitless expeditions have been fitted out and have searched the soil of the island. One of the latest was led by Earl Fitzwilliam, in 1905, but his party met with a disaster in the shape of a landslide during blasting operations, and seven of them were injured. Several companies have been formed to equip expeditions, but needless to say none of them has ever paid a dividend.

Crust of the Earth.

Hon. R. J. Strutt, F. R. S., has gathered rocks from all the world over, granites from Cornwall and Rhodesia, basalt from Greenland, the Victoria Falls and Ireland, syenite from Norway, leucite from Mount Vesuvius, and has estimated as a result of prolonged investigations that not more than one-thirtieth of the total volume of the earth is composed of rocks, found on the surface.

As a result of his deductions he estimates that the depth of the earth's rock crust is approximately 45 miles.
This deduction coincides to a certain degree with the calculations of Prof.
Milne, the earthquake expert, who has been investigating to the same end
by the observation of earthquake tremors and their speeds. Prof. Milne concludes that at a depth of 30 miles below the earth's surface exist rocks whose physical properties are similar to those found on the exterior.

Mr. Strutt computes the internal heat of the globe to be about 1,500 degrees centigrade at about 45 miles below the surface. Such a heat indicates the melting point of iron, but it is considerably below the melting point of platinum, which Dr. Harker fixed at 1,710 degrees centigrade.

Standin' By.

The whimsical humor of "The Cruise of the Shining Light" is illustrated by the following scene between Dannie and old Nick Top, whose highest virtue is to "stand by" to the end:

"Dannie, lad," he would begin, "is ol' Nicholas Top a well-known figger
in Newland?"

"He's knowed," was the response
I had been taught, "from Cape Race
t' Chidley."

"What for?"

"Standin' by."

"So far so good; my uncle would beam upon me as though the compliment were of my own devising, until 'twas necessary once more to wipe the smile and blush from his great wet countenance."

"Is it righteous," says he, "stand by?"

"'Tis that."

"He would now lean close with his poset, 'I say so in the Bible? Ah ba, lad, 't' say so there?"

"'Twas 't' out," says I, having to this been scandalously taught, "by mistake."

Twice in Jeopardy.

An old negro was recently brought before a justice in Mobile. It seemed that Uncle Moses had fallen foul of a bulldog while in the act of entering the henhouse of the dog's owner.

"Look here, Uncle Moses," the justice said, informally, "didn't I give you ten days last month for this same thing? Same henhouse you were trying to get into. What have you got to say for yourself?"

Uncle Moses scratched his head
"Mars Willyum, yo' sent me ter de chain gang fer tryin' to steal some chickens, didn't ye?"

"Yes, that was the charge."

"An' don't de law say yo' can't be charged twice wid de same fence?"

"That no man shall be twice placed in jeopardy for the identical act, yes."

"Den, sah, yo' des hab ter let me go,
sah. Ah war after de same chickens,
sah."

SHE WAS SYMPATHETIC

"It's a perfect shame," said the girl
with the big eyes and the fluffy pompadour.

"I thought you'd feel that way," agreed the young man with the brilliant necktie and glittering patent leathers. "You have some sympathy and—common sense. Lots of persons have not."

"Dear me," said the girl with big eyes, indignantly. "I should think anyone would sympathize with you when you were working so hard and doing so much for the firm and then after all you were let out like that."

"Yes," said the young man, bitterly
"It just shows that true worth isn't appreciated. Why, lots of times when I had a customer and it was my lunch hour I never said a word, but finished waiting on him. Sometimes I've had at least ten minutes cut off my lunch hour, but I didn't care. I had the good of the firm in mind. And then Gibbons, the manager, without even apologizing, hands me my walking papers.
He said they couldn't stand my getting down late and—"

"The idea!" said the girl with the big eyes. "They needn't have been so particular over such a little thing when you worked so hard after you got there."

"That's what I thought," said the young man. "Actually, some nights I've gone home with a headache just because I had been so devoted to them."

"Yet Gibbons actually had kept a list of the times I'd been excused or had taken a day off and he said it was preposterous. There was the time I went to the party out at LaGrange. I should think anyone with sense would see that a man couldn't get into town much before noon the next day. I couldn't be rude to the Howards, who had asked me to stay all night. How

"Well, I'm Not Saying Anything."

would it have looked if I had bolted my breakfast and run? It is so vulgar to act as if money was the only thing on earth."

"I should say so," said the pretty girl, fluffing her pompadour. "Why, they never would have forgiven you."

"I pointed that out to Gibbons," said the young man, "but he just growled. Gibbons has shocking manners. I don't see how he ever got to be manager. I should think it would be better for the firm if they had a man there who was younger and had —er—more social polish."

"He probably was just jealous of you and wanted to get you out of the way," sympathized the girl with the big eyes.

"The young man looked conscious.
"Well, I'm not saying anything," he commented, darkly. "And that day I had to take that New York girl around while she waited for her train west—why, Gibbons has no idea of social courtesies. All he thinks of is hard ware. I believe in a man being broad-minded and not such a stickler for unessential things. As if half an hour or so in the morning mattered."

"I should say so!" exclaimed the pretty girl. "I think that Mr. Gibbons was perfectly horrid."

"It's too bad there aren't more girls like you," said the young man, approvingly. "It is perfectly remarkable how little things give you new light on a person's character. Why, I had always liked Alice White ever so much, though she is one of those self-satisfied, haughty creatures. I overlooked that because it is a fault she may outgrow. I have always been nice to her, though I must say she never seems very grateful."

"Not one word of sympathy; only the most cold-blooded heartlessness. I couldn't believe my ears. I hate to have my confidence in my friends shattered. It makes me feel dreadfully, for, of course, a girl like that is impossible. A man expects sympathy in a woman above all else."

"I should say so," said the girl with the big eyes. "How perfectly horrid of Alice! It's just like her. She may boast of her common sense but as for me, I think it is unwomanly. The idea of talking to you that way!"

"Why I could cry, I'm so sorry for you!"
It was the most unjust thing!"

"I know you'd feel that way," said the young man with the brilliant neck-tie. "You have a different nature and appreciate a fellow's worth. A girl like Alice makes one—well, tired."

"I certainly hope that I'm different," agreed the girl with the big eyes.
"And it's a perfect shame!"—Chicago
Daily News.

HANDKERCHIEF NOVELTIES.

Novel Designs Complementing the Season's Dress Fabrics.

The subject of handkerchiefs is an unusually interesting one this season.
Here, as in every other accessory of woman's costume, novelty presents itself in the most fascinating guises.

It is the colored handkerchief,
strange as it may seem, which claims first place; and this too, with the smartest dressers. The old prejudice against the handkerchief carrying even the slightest suggestion of color has been entirely forgotten, and by those, too, whose exclusive tastes permitted in the old days the selection, of only the neatest hemstitched and most unobtrusive embroidered pure white affairs.

These new affairs are absolutely irresistible in their dainty colorings and designs. The linen is of the finest, and the designs the most artistic. The Japanese tendency which dominates the costume world is traceable in many of the best designs.

The majority of these handkerchief novelties have a narrow colored hem, in pink, blue, green or yellow, in the palest tint. Some show border effects in conventionalized flower designs, the flower centers a bit of delicate hand embroidery executed in finest cotton or linen threads. Clusters of tiny diamonds, polka-dots and squares in one or two colors alternate inside of the colored hem, with embrodery dots usually in white, though sometimes in color. Then there are the plaid handkerchiefs, with and without a plain-colored hem. These are more often in two-tone effects, and show a bit of fine handwork in a corner design in the form of a tiny flower spray in the place of the initial.

Initial handkerchiefs, by the way,
are still good style, but they come only in the plain whites, and not in novelty colored affairs.

Some very pretty patterns show the colored printings in corner and border designs, embroidered over with tiny dots, and naturally the more embrodery these handkerchiefs carry the higher they are marked in price.

Another novelty shown among the most exclusive patterns has the daintiest finish imaginable in the form of a very narrow lace edge, hand-made lace, by the way. These, of course, are more or less expensive, but the clever and ingenious girl may buy the plain handkerchiefs and set on the lace herself with very gratifying results, both as to effect and price.

Polka-dots are well represented, doubtless because of the prominence given this design in dress fabrics this season.

Checks also are not without favor,
so the summer girl will find little difficulty in matching her dainty frocks with handkerchiefs, complementing them in both color and design.

THREE DISHES OF CHICKEN.

All Good, and Among Them the Old-Fashioned Stew.

Chickens should be cut up clean and seasoned over night or for a few hours. It improves the flavor. Cook all chicken slowly. Prepare the three following recipes:

Louisiana Chicken.—Roll each piece of seasoned chicken in flour, put in iron frying pan and cover with clots of butter and one pint of milk. Cover tightly with weights on lid and bake in slow oven. When the milk has simmered down add another pint and bake until tender.

Old-Fashioned Stewed Chicken.—
One small minced onion to a tablespoonful of butter, fry golden brown, then add one tablespoon of flour, mix well, then one cup of tomatoes, pinch of ginger, cook up, and then add one pint of water and then chicken. Cook slowly and add more water if needed.

Chicken Hash.—Mince cold chicken and one green pepper and one-half can of button mushrooms, and add all to a rich cream gravy and season. For the gravy one tablespoon of butter, mix with one of flour, and add one cup of milk or more.

How to Clean Paint Brushes.

So many people renovate their own houses now, and repaint and touch up their garden railings, that the following hint may be of some use. When you have finished painting put your brushes into a stone pail in which you have melted some soft soap and soda in a little boiling water. Whisk the brushes round and round in this;
change the water, add more soap and soda, and so on until the brushes are clean; rinse them in warm water, and leave them standing in cold water until you wish to use them again. If they have become dry and hard, rinse them in turpentine before washing them.

Sweeping the Invalid's Room.

Most of us know how untidy a sick room becomes, and how annoying the dust of the sweeping is to the patient. "To remedy this," said a trained and capable nurse recently, "I put a little ammonia in a pail of warm water, and with my mop wrung as dry as possible go all over the carpet first. This takes up all the dust and much of the loose dirt. A broom will take what is too large to adhere to the mop and raise no dust. With my dust cloth well sprinkled I go over the furniture, and the room is fairly clean."

For Spotless Windows.

Apply a little paraffin with a well-worn sponge or chamois leather if you want to have spotless windows. Rub them over with a damp duster, then finish with a thoroughly clean, dry duster. By this treatment the glass will acquire a brilliant polish and will keep clean much longer.

L. T. L. Alumni Meet.

The Sunny Side Loyal Temperance Legion Alumni met at the home of Miss May Watkins Friday evening, July 28th, with a full attendance of members and their friends. The committee in charge of flower mission work reported over five hundred bouquets distributed. Some of these were sent to Philadelphia, some to Harrisburg and some to the Almshouse at Gettysburg. The press clippings reported amounted to over six columns. The railroad committee had changed the literature in one bracket. Each year at State convention a banner is awarded in each department to the county having the best record of work done, and the young people came home from the convention this year determined to bring some of them to Adams county next year if possible. The literary program consisted of a recitation, "There once was a Toper," by Anna Michener, a piano solo by Edith Peters, a recitation sung, Roy Haffensperger, chairman. A very amusing dialogue, "The Bargain Sale," was given by May Watkins and Fillmore Bream. The report of convention was given in the form of a salad, the slips containing questions and answers concerning the convention. The social features were conundrums and stage coach, both of which were thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Adjourned to meet at the home of Miss Myrtle Watkins at the usual time next month. Committee.

New Comet Visible.

The new comet discovered by Prof. Daniel, of Princeton university, in June of last year, is now visible to the naked eye. It has a bright stellar nucleus, much coma, and a multiple tail instead of a single short tail. The comet can be seen between 3 and 3.30 a.m., by looking due east at about 45 degrees above the horizon. It is in Pleiades, a star cluster in Taurus the Bull, and in a straight line underneath it is the Hyades, another star cluster.

There will be a pipe organ recital at St. John's Reformed church, Fairfield Thursday evening Aug. 15. Miss Elva Bair of Lancaster, Pa., will be organist. Miss Lucy Eisenhauer of Frederick, Md., will be soloist. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

Oil is the greatest and surest fortune maker the world has ever known. An oil company gets the product from the ground at an expense of about 5 cents per barrel and oil today is worth about $1.75 per barrel.

Robt. Rawlins, an oil expert, after examining the Adams County tract said, "I observed a scum on the surface of the water. It reflected the color of petroleum. A paper spread on the surface of the water where this scum appeared would burn while still wet. The paper must have absorbed oil. A bottle containing a little oil collected from certain springs certainly contained petroleum. I found several of the springs and streams contained gas, this gas I recognized as similar to what I have found in oil fields. Many oil fields of the world have been located by the appearance of oil on the surface of the water. And I believe that there is a subteranean oil strata."

Capital of the Company is 100,000 shares at $5 per share. Only a limited amount of stock is being offered, just enough for development purposes. A quantity of this stock has been sold in Connecticut and other distant points.
